Death Toll in Vietnam Climbs Some

By RICHARD PYLE
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The total of Americans killed last week in combat in Vietnam climbed to 102, exceeding 100 for the first time in five weeks, the U.S. Command announced today.

The increased toll, 24 higher than the total reported for the week before, reflected a slight increase in ground fighting involving Americans, including one battle northwest of Saigon last Friday in which 10 Americans were killed.

Enemy casualties also increased sharply, to 2,303 as compared with 1,624 reported last Thursday. The Saigon government said its battlefield dead totaled 297, four less than the week before.

The U.S. Command said 39,149 Americans and 564,607 of the enemy have been reported killed in action in Vietnam since Jan. 1, 1961.

A total of 530 Americans were wounded last week, the U.S. Command said.

Meanwhile, the Saigon government released one of its leading political prisoners, the Buddhist monk Thich Thien Minh, in an amnesty for 310 political prisoners in honor of South Vietnam's National Day Nov. 1.

Thien Minh walked smiling from the headquarters of the Saigon Military District where he had been held for nearly eight months. He told newsmen he had been treated well.

The monk, one of the leading opponents of President Nguyen Van Thieu's government, was convicted of harboring draft dodgers, deserters and Communist sympathizers. He had been serving a three-year sentence.

The government said 63 other political prisoners were being released, the punishment for seven was being "changed," one was being allowed to return from exile and the sentences of 238 were being reduced.

A spokesman said another 935 "detainees" rounded up in the provinces during the past year as Viet Cong suspects were being released or their jail terms were being reduced.

Truong Dinh Dzu, President Thieu's runnerup in the 1967 election, remained in prison despite the amnesty. A government spokesman said Dzu, arrested in May 1968 for advocating negotiations with the Viet Cong, was not on the list of prisoners who would be freed or would have their terms reduced.

The amnesty was announced Wednesday as the government was also releasing 88 Viet Cong prisoners of war, more than two thirds of them women, in what it called a humanitarian gesture.

Local FHA Group Attends Conference

The Hope Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America attended the annual Federation 16 meeting at Henderson State College, October 25.

Over 500 girls representing 22 schools in Southwest Arkansas heard an interesting and lively program on the National Program of Work.

The local girls presented a skit titled "Decisions That Count" with Linda Newton as narrator. Other girls in the skit were Lottie Brunson, Patricia Pree, Debbie Rosenbaum, Kay Clayton, Vicki Davis, Sandy Sinyard, Vicki Stroud, Debbie Owens, Alyis Nelson, Belinda East, Shirley Williams, Debbie Coleman, Margaret Mauldin, Sandra Hamilton, Vivian Smith, and Terri O'Dell.

Jennifer Rhodes, dressed as a country hick, presented a comic monologue titled "What It Was, Was Football."

Bonnie Bobo, Federation Secretary, and Kathleen Davis, Federation Treasurer, took part in the installation of new officers.

Thirty-seven FHA members attended from Hope. They were accompanied by Mrs. V.B. Beggs and Mrs. A.J. Rhodes, chapter mothers, and Mrs. Estelle Spearman and Mrs. Helen Clark, sponsors.

Precautionary safety measures for trick or treaters, their parents, and motor vehicle operators to take during Halloween were outlined today by Colonel Ralph D. Scott, Director of the Arkansas State Police.

Colonel Scott said that parents can keep their little goblins safe by:

- (1) Seeing that their children avoid costuming themselves in long garments, or loose shoes, either of which could cause a child to trip and fall, possibly into the path of a moving vehicle.
- (2) If a mask is worn, it should allow unimpaired vision to the sides as well as to the front.
- (3) Trick or treaters should not be dressed in dark clothing; at least some of the costume should be white, or at least light colored.
- (4) If the children are very young, an adult should accompany them as they make their rounds. One adult should accompany each group of four or five.

Union Seeks Money for GE Strike

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The AFL-CIO has set machinery in motion aimed at raising millions of dollars to back 13 unions striking the General Electric Co., the nation's fourth largest industrial corporation.

The strike enters its fourth day with GE officials insisting their one-and-only contract offer will not be enlarged.

AFL-CIO President George Meany said Wednesday that three labor leaders had been delegated to build a multimillion-dollar war chest with contributions from unions around the country. They are I.W. Abel, president of the Steelworkers; Thomas W. Gleason Longshoremen's president, and Joseph D. Keenan, secretary-treasurer of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

The International Union of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, and the Independent United Electrical Workers are leading the 13-union strike coalition, which represents 147,000 GE employees. The unions say 132,000 men are on strike; GE places the figure at 125,000.

Production was halted at an undetermined number of GE's 280 plants in 33 states. The largest plant, in Schenectady, N.Y., was closed after sporadic violence, but all others were open, GE said.

Meany visited the White House Wednesday and said he was cheered by President Nixon's decision against federal intervention in the strike.

"I think that's a good resolution on his part," Meany said. Meanwhile, GE announced it would appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court a decision by the U.S. Court of Appeals in New York that it was guilty of unfair labor practices in 1960 contract bargaining with the union.

The court ruled that GE's technique of offering one package and refusing to increase it inhibited bargaining.

GE Vice President Philip D. Moore said he didn't think the decision was relevant to the current strike. "General Electric," he said, "is repeatedly on record this year with our unions as being willing to modify, rearrange or otherwise change, as facts warrant."

Details of School Edict by Court

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Here at a glance are facts on Monday's ruling by the Supreme Court on school desegregation, given in a Mississippi case:

Ruling: The court said, "The obligation of every school district is to terminate dual school systems at once and to operate now and hereafter only unitary schools."

Impact: Could extend to wherever racially separate schools remain as a vestige of segregation laws the court began declaring unconstitutional in 1954... Could serve as a platform for legal attacks in the North.

Nixon administration: A stunning setback for the President and the Justice Department. They had maintained school officials needed more time to "validate" desegregation plans.

Mississippi Reaction: Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., "The decision spells disaster for public education in Mississippi and many parts of the South."

Negro Reaction: Aaron Henry, president of the Mississippi chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People: "It came as fresh water to those of us who have gotten to the point of wondering where he stood in America."

ment were improving. An Egyptian spokesman said Egypt had approved Lebanon's proposals for peace with the guerrillas, had agreed to mediate, and had invited guerrilla chief Yassir Arafat to Cairo for peace talks.

At Klayat, in north Lebanon about three miles from the Syrian border, the guerrillas were driven off after a 30-minute gun fight and suffered heavy losses, the Lebanese communique said. It reported one building hit by a rocket, the runway slightly damaged and one soldier wounded.

Klayat was used by Lebanon's new Mirage jet fighters until they were moved to a less vulnerable base after the conflict with the guerrillas developed. The road to Klayat has been cut by Arabs in a refugee camp north of Tripoli, and the army has made no attempt to reopen it.

In the southern port of Sidon, another guerrilla force attacked an army checkpoint with grenades and machine guns and wounded one soldier, the communique said.

Beirut was quiet following another night of terrorist dharmite blasts.

The chemistry prize was awarded to Prof. Derek H. R. Barton, 51, of the Imperial College of Science and Technology, in London and Prof. Odd Hassel, 72, of the University of Oslo "for their work to develop and apply the concept of confirmation in chemistry."

The prizes this year carry a record cash award of $72,800.

More Cuts in Foreign Aid Are Likely

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's foreign aid bill, already sharply cut, appears headed for a further, Republican money-trimming effort on the House floor.

Rep. E. Ross Adair of Indiana, the senior Republican on the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said he will propose a deeper slash than the $542.5 million already knocked off Nixon's request by the House panel.

This collided with an administration drive to hold the line on the $2.19 billion aid ceiling for this year voted by the committee Wednesday. The measure is due for House action next month.

A top official of the aid-administering Agency for International Development termed Nixon's request modest and voiced hope the committee version "will be maintained" by the full House.

"The cost of about one penny of every dollar of the federal budget for our economic assistance programs to the developing nations is the minimum this country should provide," the high aid officer said, "and that is just about what we have asked." He asked not to be quoted by name.

What overseas assistance level Congress sets is regarded as particularly important this year in light of decreasing funds for the program in recent years.

If Washington does not reverse this down trend, international aid groups have said, other countries may also slacken their aid efforts despite a growing gap between rich and poor nations.

However, both Adair and Rep. Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., the committee chairman, indicated further cuts are likely.

Adair, a veteran critic of the legislation, said the only question is how much the cut will be. Morgan expressed hope the final house version could be held to at least the 197 billion authorized in 1968.

Court Simply Orders It Done Now

By DON McLEOD
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — In the 14 years since the Supreme Court ordered public schools desegregated "with all deliberate speed," many had asked, "until when?"

The court has answered: "Now." "Continued operation of segregated schools under a standard of allowing 'all deliberate speed' for desegregation is no longer constitutionally permissible," the court said Wednesday.

"Under explicit holdings of this court the obligation of every school district is to terminate dual school systems at once and to operate now and hereafter only unitary schools."

The court ruled unanimously May 17, 1954 that racial segregation in public schools was unconstitutional.

by law in 17 states and sanctioned by law in four others, the court pondered for a year before giving any guidelines for implementation.

May 31, 1955, the court said federal courts should require "a prompt and reasonable start toward full compliance" and an end to segregation in public schools "with all deliberate speed."

Lower courts were to be allowed to "take into account the public interest" in eliminating obstacles to desegregation. "But it should go without saying that the vitality of these constitutional principles cannot be allowed to yield simply because of disagreement with them."

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

FORWARD GIRLS TURN HIM OFF

Dear Helen: Several months ago you ran a column of letters from guys who thought it would be pretty cool if girls came up to them and said, "Hey, don't you think we ought to get to know each other?"

Let's qualify that a little: If the girl is worth knowing, fine, but what about the duds—and they might just be the ones to try this: So what does a fellow say? —BROUGHT UP TO BE CHIV-

ALROUS

Dear BUTBC: . . .How about small talk and a fast exit—just as girls have been managing the polite male "brush-off" for, lo, these many years?—H.

Dear Helen: What does a boy look for in a girl? Let's instead name what he DOESN'T want in a girl:

1. She shouldn't come on too sexy. He figures if she displays it for everybody, with micro-minis, triple eyelashes, necklines down to there, etc., he'll be standing in line for a pretty well-used commodity.

2. She should not impersonate girls she thinks come on strong. This shows she doesn't think much of herself. Besides, a girl's best approach is naturalness, even if she's shy. Guys don't mind helping out, if she's honest about her uneasiness.

But if she plays a part, they never know how the real gal will be, once she drops the sham.

3. She better not overdo the eye appeal. When a girl looks deep into a boy's eyes constantly, he gets the feeling she has staked him out for her very own, which makes him uneasy. This goes for falling all over him too. Let HIM come to her.

4. Finally she shouldn't try to do him over, but rather accept him as he is—and that means not sulking when he does not call every night, or criticizing his clothes, among other things.—V.N.P.

Dear Helen: I'm going with a guy of 18, who is graduated, has a good job, a nice apartment near the school, and a terrific personality. Also he knows my standards and would never try to break them down. I'm a sophomore.

Every lunch period, I go to his apartment, prepare the food he has left for me, and when he and a friend come in, we all eat together. Then he drives me back to school.

My folks and his know about this arrangement, and have no objections, but friends think I'm foolish. They say, "Don't you care what people will say?"

I don't want to cause talk, but I can't see anything wrong with this. It's lots more fun than eating a dumb school lunch room.

Otherwise, we date once a week, and he stops in at my house between times to visit with me and my parents.

Am I taking a chance with my reputation?—JUNIOR COOK, SOPHOMORE GRADE

Dear Cook: So long as you have parental approval—and you can wholeheartedly approve of your own actions—why worry about a few remarks from your "friends"?—H.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "The Brass Are Comin'," Herb Alpert's NBC television special Wednesday night, was his third in three years, and it seemed to suffer from a desire to top the other two. The result was a spotty, mixed bag.

No hour filled with the music of Alpert and his Tijuana Brass can fail to delight. But on top of that rich serving was heaped the visual part. Some marvelous material was filmed on California beaches, but there were the trick shots—fades, dissolves, strange Dali-esque segments of the band playing on the desert.

Sometimes, with pie-in-the-face comedy, one felt as if he had tuned in by mistake on Show time period. Johnny

"The Monkees." At others, it seemed like a leisurely psychedelic soft drink commercial. There were cameos and blackouts used so much on "Laugh-In." And there did seem to be more commercials than usual.

There were some happy moments, too, including Alpert's and Petula Clark's satirizing the style of the master movie makers from Fellini to Busby Berkeley.

Alpert, a great trumpet player and a romantic figure, asayed a little singing, too, displaying considerable style but pretty thin notes.

Maybe everybody was trying too hard.

Midseason action is warming up in the television bullpen. "Hee Haw" is back in production, certain of a CBS spot around New Years, probably the current "Leslie Uggams Show" time period. Johnny Cash and his crew start making new shows for ABC in the next 10 days.

Programming executives of all three networks are in conference about cancellations and replacements. Among programs likely to disappear at midseason is CBS' "The Good Guys."

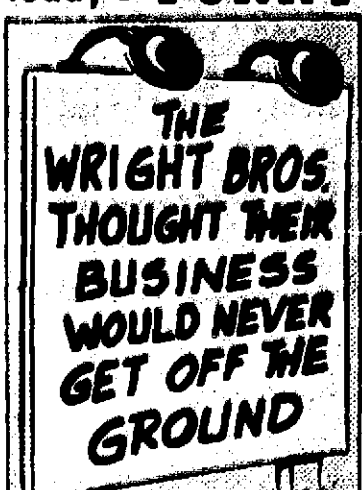

ABC is unhappy about the reception of "Music Scene," "The New People," "The Brady Bunch" and "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town." It is unhappy about more than that, but there is a limit to how much repair work can be done. It has in the wings the "Pat Paulsen Show," and Engelbert Humperdinck variety hour and a situation comedy called "Nanny," about a governess.

It will finish out the season with "The Survivors" no matter what the ratings, and will stick by "It Takes a Thief," "Here Come the Brides" and "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir," all of which are languishing.

Porks Lead the Nation in Defense

NEW YORK (AP) — The Southwest Conference has never been known for its defense, but the Arkansas Razorbacks seem intent on breaking with tradition this year.

The Razorbacks lead the nation in scoring defense in this week's major college football statistics released today by National Collegiate Sports Services: Arkansas has yielded only 27 points in five games, an average of 5.4 per contest.

Close behind is Dartmouth with 29 points and a 5.8 average. The 1964 Arkansas team is the only Southwest Conference team in history to win a scoring defense title.

Dartmouth is going for a triple, the first since Auburn in 1957. The Indians lead in total defense, giving only 176.2 yards per game, and in pass defense, 68 yards per contest.

Wyoming is the rushing defense leader with an incredible 18 yards per game. Only Penn State, at 17 in 1947, finished with a lower defensive yardage.

Spurrer Is Offensive Back of Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Steve Spurrer, an underdog to John Brodie for three years, finally got a chance to show his stuff Sunday and responded with an effort that gave the San Francisco 49ers their first victory of the year.

Spurrer came to the 49ers in 1967 after winning the Helmsman Trophy while breaking 15 school records at Florida and throwing 37 touchdown passes. He sat behind Brodie and George Mira for two seasons, confining his efforts to punting.

Mira was shipped away to Philadelphia this year when Brodie came up with arm trouble. Spurrer got the ball. He had started two games in his rookie season and lost both.

"I don't want to sound as if I'm bragging," he said Sunday after the 24-21 upset over Baltimore, "but I played some better games at Florida," but he did a good job for the 49ers, enough to gain The Associated Press' nomination today as offensive player of the week in the National Football League.

It was no walkover for Spurrer. John Gilliam of the St. Louis Cardinals had a fantastic day at Cleveland, catching touchdown passes of 84, 79 and 15 yards from Charley Johnson in a 21-21 tie.

Donny Anderson, Green Bay's neglected halfback who has complained "play me or trade me," ran for 114 yards in 18 carries in the Packers' 28-10 victory over Atlanta.

Bruce Gossett of Los Angeles provided all the points in a 9-7 win over Chicago with three field goals and Gale Sayers came through with his first big effort of the season.

Ex-wrestler New ABA Commissioner

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Dolph, who started wrestling at 103 pounds and wound up in television's heavyweight class, has been chosen to lead the American Basketball Association's fight for survival in the professional cage game.

Dolph, Director of Sports for the Columbia Broadcasting System Television Network since 1959, was named commissioner Wednesday of the ABA, now in its third season.

The 41-year-old media veteran succeeds George Mikan, who resigned last July 14 after leading the ABA's battle for parity with the established National Basketball Association since the new league's inception.

Mikan, the former DePaul All-American and NBA superstar, is enshrined in basketball's Hall of Fame. Dolph's basketball career ended shortly after it began.

"I went out for my high school basketball team and the wrestling coach grabbed me," the new commissioner said. "So I wrestled for four years and watched basketball from the sideline."

The new commissioner will see his first ABA game Friday night at Denver as he begins a get-acquainted tour of the 11 league cities. After that, his primary concerns will include the procurement of a national television contract and the renewal of merger discussions with NBA chief Walter Kennedy, who broke off talks following the signing of several NBA players by ABA clubs.

"I've known Walter for 10 years I've been in New York," Dolph said. "We're quite close friends and I sincerely hope we remain so. I know we can talk — I'm sure of it on my part anyway."

"A merger has value to both leagues. In the future, economics may dictate it. Right now, we are neither counting on it, nor worrying about it. At this point, we can exist separately."

"We need television and I believe we have a product television can use. There are two baseball leagues, two football leagues and two basketball leagues. I believe there's room for both basketball leagues on television."

"I'm delighted we have a man like Jack," said James C. Gardner, the Carolina Cougars' owner and ABA president, who made the announcement of Dolph's appointment at a mid-town news conference. "I think we've made some progress in the last six months."

Palmer Is Confident of Comeback

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
NAPA, Calif. (AP) — Arnold Palmer plunged into the third week of his comeback today with renewed confidence and a smile on his face, but plagued with a little impatience.

"No, I can't say I'm satisfied," Palmer said of his first two efforts after a two-month absence with an arthritic left hip.

He finished in a tie for 34th in the Sahara and a tie for 27th last week in the San Francisco Open. His total prize money for the two weeks was $1,174, not enough to pay the fuel bill for his private jet.

"I won't be satisfied until I start winning again," said the dynamic millionaire who is attempting to fight his way out of a prolonged slump. He hasn't won in more than a year.

But there have been some indications that the 40-year-old slugger gradually may be regaining the form that made him the game's all-time leading money winner.

He had a practice round 65, seven under par, and carded a sparkling 66 Wednesday, six under par, on the 6,849-yard North course of the Silverado Country Club, where three of the four rounds of the $140,000 Kaiser International Open Golf Tournament will be played.

Both the North and South courses, each with a par 72, will be utilized today and Friday, with half the field playing first one, then the other. The North course will be used for the final two days.

"I'm playing better, it seems," Palmer admitted. "The last couple of weeks I just couldn't keep it together for four rounds."

In each tournament, one bad round blocked him out of contention. At Sahara, it was a horrendous nine on one hole. At San Francisco it was a third round 73.

Seaver Gets Credit for Reversal

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Pitching for the New York Mets has always been an experience, but never much of an honor until Tom Seaver came along.

Two years ago, Seaver won himself Rookie of the Year honors in the National League and now he has been selected the winner of the Cy Young Award as the league's best pitcher in 1969.

But Seaver represents more than just an honor or an award for the Mets; he represents the miraculous reversal for he was born out of a Mets' past that includes such master losers as Roger Craig, Craig Anderson, Jack Fisher, Jay Hook, Al Jackson, Galen Cisco and Tracy Stallard.

Only eight seasons ago when the Mets were created they lost a record 120 games and missed by a hair of becoming the first team with three 20-game losers.

In that first year, pitching for baseball's worst team ever, Craig lost 24 games, Jackson 20 and Hook 19. Anderson, who didn't pitch much during the final month, took 17 defeats.

Craig went on to lose 22 the next year, 18 of them in a row, and Stallard lost 20 and Cisco 19 in 1964.

Fisher was the big loser the next three years with 24, 14 and 18.

And the hitting and fielding were just as bad, making it easy for a pitcher to lose 20.

But 1967 marked the beginning of a new era. It heralded the appearance of young right-handed Seaver, the first Mets' pitcher with a future.

No one laughed when Tom Seaver took the mound. He was a 16-game winner that first year, but more important, he was a winner. He started the Mets thinking of victory rather than settling for defeat.

In 1968 Seaver again won 18 games and made the All-Star team for the second time. That year he was joined by Jerry Koosman, with 19 victories, and the Mets finished with their best record, 73-89.

Then came 1969 and Gary Gentry joined the staff and the Mets came up with some hitting and fielding. Seaver expanded into a 25-7 pitcher whose 10 straight victories at the end of the season sent the Mets to the East Division title.

He won the first game of a playoff sweep over Atlanta for the National League pennant and added another victory in a stunning five-game World Series rout of Baltimore, completing the Impossible Dream.

Camden Is Rated Over Bobcats

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — No. 1 vs. No. 2. Fort Smith Northside vs. Little Rock Hall. The two unbeaten collide Friday night at Little Rock's War Memorial Stadium with several things at stake, not the least of which is a possible state championship.

The inside track to the Class AAAA championship is on the line along with Northside's unbeaten streak, which has reached 30 games.

Northside has won the state championship the past two years. Both years they handed the Warriors their only defeat of the season.

Some observers say Northside may have its best offensive attack in years with hard-running Billy Joe Releford and Robert Owens. Releford has scored 12 touchdowns this year and Hall tailback Thomas Henry has scored 10.

There is also a feeling that Hall may be more solid defensively.

This should be a whale of a game and one of those you'd rather pass than pick.

However, Northside, has been a winner the past two years and may find some way to do it again.

NORTHSIDE 17, HALL 15. Springdale and Fort Smith Southside may decide the Class AAA West title Friday night at Fort Smith.

Third-ranked Springdale is the only team in the conference which has not lost. Southside and Texarkana have dropped one conference game each. Jon Sherry's arm may be the difference. The Springdale quarterback has already set a school record with 69 completions.

SPRINGDALE 20, FS SOUTHSIDE 14.

Fourth-ranked Jonesboro and Newport, one of the top teams in Class QQ, play Friday night at Newport with prestige at stake.

Newport has lost once, to a Class AAA team, and may be the Hurricane's biggest remaining obstacle to an unbeaten season.

Just a hunch, but Jonesboro may be mentally drained after the past few weeks.

NEWPORT 14, JONESBORO 13.

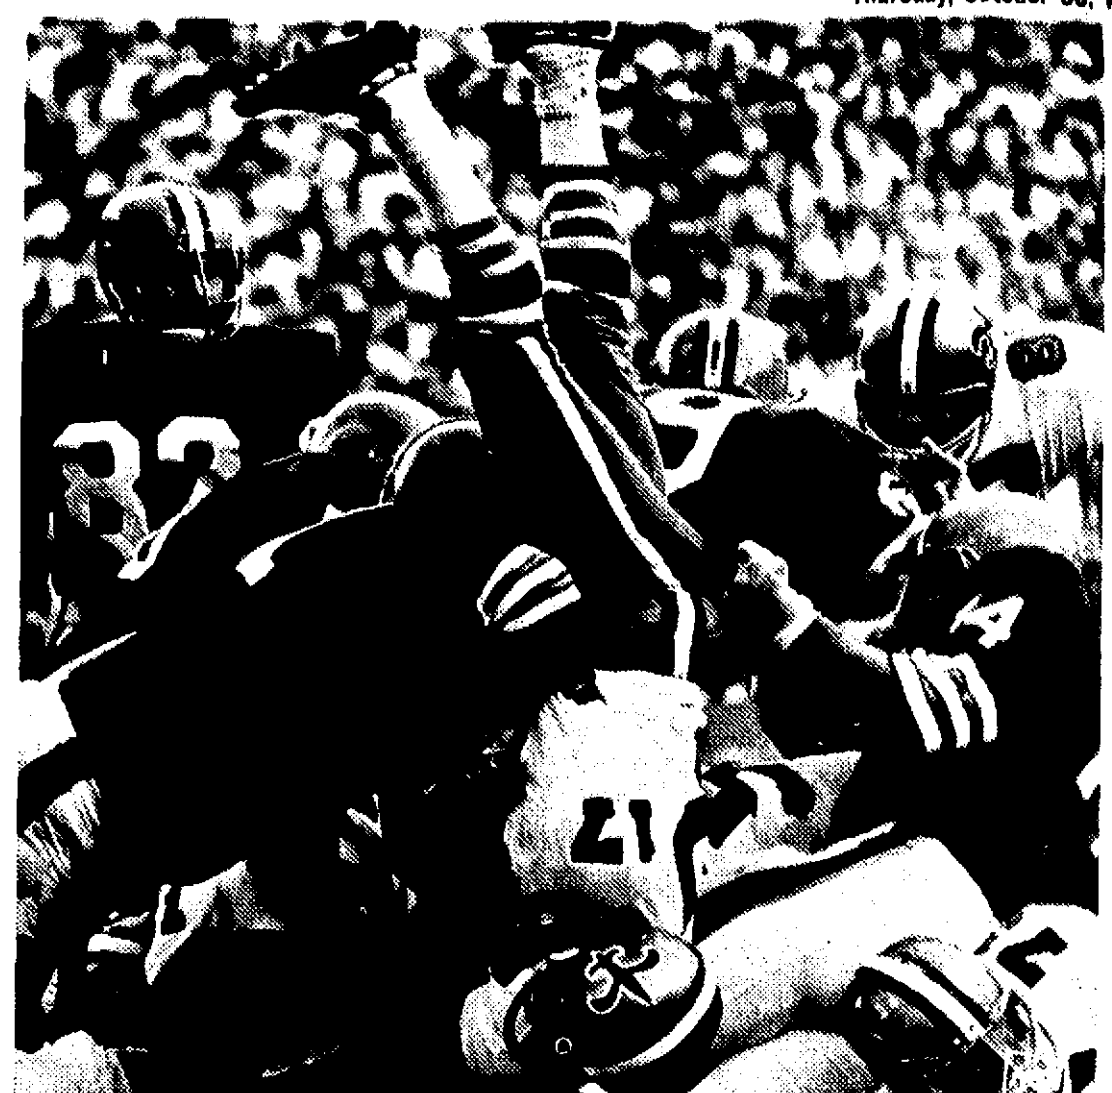

Last week's percentage was .688. Here are other AA, AAA and AAAA selections:

Camden Plans Homecoming Friday

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

It's scary to think of, but the Hope Bobcats have to play the Camden Panthers' Homecoming game tomorrow (Halloween) night, and the stakes are far-reaching.

Though both teams are 6-2 and this is not a divisional game, the 4-AA races in both East and West may be decided by overall records in case of ties. In that case, every game counts from here on in.

Camden is rated seventh among Arkansas' Class AA schools, and the Bobcats stand 11th in that category after downing Magnolia 21-0 Friday.

This Thursday story normally is a scouting report of the Bobcat opponent, but this writer is unprepared after just returning from a trip to Washington, D.C. this week.

Coach George Burke has employed the Texas "Y" formation with the Panther offense, and Camden is primarily known as a running team.

Their 6-2 record is not so impressive, except that the Panthers clubbed Fairview 27-7 back on September 13, and the Cardinals haven't come within four touchdowns of losing against district teams since that point.

Tonight (Thursday) the Yenger Junior Bobkittens wrap up their 1969 slate at Hammons Stadium against the Fairview Jr. Redbirds, and Hope will have the chance to wind up the year 4-4 with a victory from the 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Rangers Come Up With a Girl Goalie

MARQUETTE, Mich. (AP) — The Marquette Iron Rangers of the U.S. Hockey League have come up with something different in the way of goalies: a girl. She's Karen Koch, an 18-year-old freshman at Northern Michigan University.

A player since she was 12, Karen enrolled at Northern Michigan with the idea of making the hockey team. But the school has no team.

So Karen got a trial with the semipro Iron Rangers and beat out four males for the backup goalkeeping assignment.

Karen, who carried 130 pounds on a 5-foot-5 frame, is aware of the hazards of goalkeeping and has a scar to prove it. A doctor put 10 stitches under her left eye after she failed to cope with a puck fired by her father in a practice scrimmage two seasons back.

She wears a protective mask now. Her mother insists. Karen said her parents have no objection to her becoming an Iron Ranger.

Rodney Brand Cleanup Man for Porks

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — In Arkansas' dropback passing attack, center Rodney Brand is the "cleanup" man.

If no blitz develops, Brand's job is to block the first defender to slip past an offensive lineman.

"Rodney has the ability to get back on the dropback pass and block the most dangerous man," says Razorback offensive line coach Marvin Johnson. "He makes the proper choice. He has a real knack for that. I think that helped him earn All-Southwest Conference last year as much as anything else."

Brand, the first player to start three solid years at center since Frank Broyles came to Arkansas in 1958, is a 6-2½, 225-pounder with "real quickness."

"For two or three steps he's as quick as anyone we've had," said Johnson. "He's had a tremendous year for us so far. Week in and week out he's the most consistent lineman we've had, particularly on the dropback."

Brand is particularly effective against a four-man defensive line.

"When you eliminate that man on the center's nose, you let him do things that make people's eyes pop," Johnson said. "If he's got a man on his nose, all he can do is try to block him, and he's at a disadvantage with his arms behind him."

Brand says he enjoys pass blocking.

"You can tell right away which man to go get and it's not all that hard," he said. "He's tied up with a blocker to start with and then he's looking for the passer and so you've got an advantage on him."

Johnson says the fourth-ranked Razorbacks ask a lot of Brand in their goal-line attack. "In many of our goal line plays we try to free our guard to pull on the sweep or to wall off the linebacker," Johnson said. "This requires that Brand cut off a down lineman who is coming extremely hard. He's got to cut off a big quick individual who is closer to the point of contact than he is."

Johnson says only lack of size could keep Brand from playing professional football.

"He certainly does everything the pros want a center to do," Johnson said.

Miserable Day But Hogs Work Out

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Cold rain fell on the Arkansas Razorbacks as they worked 1½ hours in pads on the Astro-Turf in Razorback Stadium Wednesday.

Coach Frank Broyles gave his analysis: "A miserable day and a bad practice."

The fourth-ranked Razorbacks were preparing for Saturday's homecoming game against Texas A&M.

"We were able to salvage a practice," Broyles said. "But we didn't get much done. We're sure not ready to play."

"We had to repeat time after time," he added. "We'll try to get better."

ed as a weekly by Claude Mc-

1926 — Plant was revived by Curtis Cannon as the weekly
Hempstead County Review.

1927 — Cannon sold plant to D.A. Gean, who established the

3-Way Tie for Lead in ABA East Division

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Kentucky led all the way while Indiana had a tougher time. But the outcome was the same as both teams scored victories Wednesday night and joined idle Carolina in a threeway tie for first place in the American Basketball Association's Eastern Division.

Kentucky turned in a balanced scoring attack in beating Dallas 122-117 while Indiana outscored Pittsburgh 20-8 in four minutes late in the game for a 129-113 victory.

All three clubs are 4-1 and lead Pittsburgh by one game in the East while Dallas, 6-3, still enjoyed a one game lead over Los Angeles, in the West despite the loss.

The New York Nets beat Miami 99-92 in the only other ABA game.

In the NBA, Philadelphia whipped Baltimore 129-105, Atlanta defeated San Diego 117-113 and Chicago thumped San Francisco 101-87.

Four Dallas players scored more than 20 points each but the Colonels led throughout the game. Stan Smith and Darel Carrier were high scorers for Kentucky with 19 points each.

Glen Combs starred for Dallas with 24, Ron Boone hit for 23 and John Beasley and Charles Beasley each had 21. Cliff Hag-gan, the Chaparrals' coach, was ejected from the game after the officials called two technical fouls on him.

Indiana was in front 97-93 with 8:14 left to play but swept to a 117-101 advantage in a scoring blitz in the next four minutes.
John Brisker of Pittsburgh was the game's high scorer with 42 points. Roger Brown was high for the Pacers with 31.

The Nets rallied in the fourth quarter and, at one point, scored 16 of 22 points for a 96-83 lead they never lost. Miami's Andy Anderson led all scoring with 30 points, 22 in the second half. Levern Tart was high scorer for the Nets with 25.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It isn't that the Philadelphia
76ers like playing without Luke Jackson, but they aren't going to let his absence discourage them.

The 76ers played most of last season without their big center, Wilt Chamberlain's replacement when Wilt was traded.
Still, the 76ers finished second in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division with a 55-27 record.

Now Jackson is out again,
with a partially collapsed lung, and although he is expected to rejoin the team Friday, the 76ers are not sitting on their hands waiting for him. They still are winning.

Peace Group Asks Hanoi to Get Serious

PARIS (AP) — The United States called today for a resumption of the Paris peace talks "to break out of this sterile situation and promote serious negotiations." A North Vietnamese source said the proposal had been rejected.

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, in a brief statement to the 40th session of the peace conference, proposed that the principal spokesman of each delegation, accompanied by no more than three advisers, meet next Tuesday in a "new approach" to the deadlocked talks.

He suggested that there would be "no public record of what is said" at such restricted sessions "but we could agree on exactly what would be said to the press after each session."

However, the North Vietnamese source reported the Viet Cong's provisional revolutionary government of South Vietnam immediately turned down the proposal.

Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, the Viet Cong's foreign minister, said the Lodge move was aimed at "legalizing" the Saigon regime, avoiding a reply to Viet Cong demands for an end "to the U.S. aggression," and to "cover crimes committed by Americans" in South Vietnam.

She called for the United States to have private talks with the Viet Cong to settle the Vietnam war, a proposal previously rejected by the United States.

Lodge told the meeting: "We need a new approach to break out of this sterile situation and promote serious negotiations."

North Vietnamese Ambassador Xuan Thuy said that "in order to go straight to practical works" he was asking Lodge to answer two questions:

—When does the United States intend to completely withdraw its troops?

—When will the U.S. delegate start direct talks with the Viet Cong?

The United States has already rejected the North Vietnamese proposal to cut out the Saigon government from private talks, and has insisted upon a mutual withdrawal of all non-South Vietnamese troops from South Vietnam.

Treatment Regimen For Raynaud's Disease

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What are the cause and symptoms of Raynaud's disease? Is there any cure for it?

A—This disease is characterized by a blanching of the fingers of both hands, usually followed by a bluish tinge then, with the return of the circulation, the fingers become very red. The cause is a spasm in the small arteries of the fingers followed by a dilation, but the underlying cause is not known. Nervous tension may be a contributing factor. Exposure of the hands or the body to cold will trigger an attack.

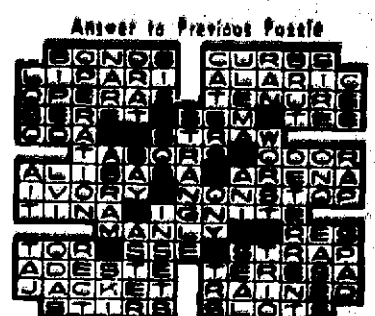

Since there is no cure, the treatment must be aimed at preventing attacks. Although there is no evidence that smoking is a cause, it may aggravate the disease. For that reason the victim should give up smoking.

In cold weather the victim must protect himself from becoming chilled and should take special care not to chill his fingers. Always wear gloves when removing anything from the refrigerator. Massage the hands with Polysorb Hydrate Lotion every night at bedtime. Avoidance of nervous tension is also an important part of the treatment.

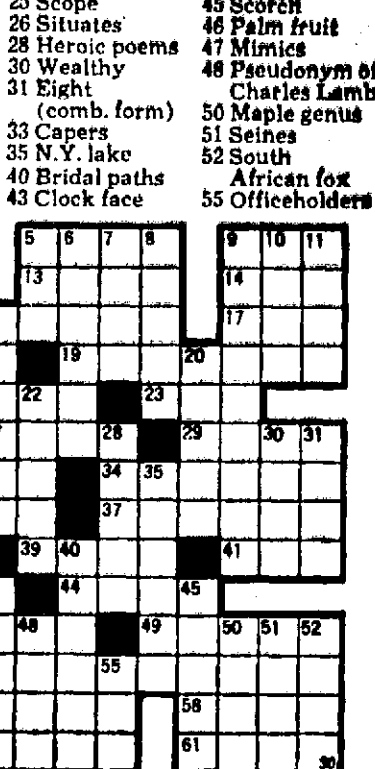

A 1/200-grain nitroglycerin tablet placed under the tongue 10 minutes before going outside in cold weather will prevent the arterial spasms. Recent studies show that methylodopa, a prescription drug, is effective in controlling this disease. Reserpine injected into the main artery of the arm is helpful in severe cases with impending gangrene of the finger tips.

Q—On cold days my finger tips become numb and white. It takes about 15 minutes for them to get back to normal. What causes this? Is it serious?

A—This sounds like Raynaud's disease, although you did not mention the typical

WIN AT BRIDGE

Student Fails To Dig Spades

By Oswald & James Jacoby

The student is usually a quiet kibitzer but he gasped when the Professor, sitting South, played the four of spades on East's king at trick one.

East returned the six of spades and the Professor's jack lost to West's queen. Back came a third spade and the Professor went about the business of knocking out both minor suits and making his three no-trump contract.

The student, who had restrained himself after that first gasp, now asked excitedly, "You pulled the wrong card at trick one, didn't you?"

"Not at all," replied the Professor.

"But you had two sure spade tricks if you won with the ace," continued the student. "Wouldn't you have made an overtrick if you had won that first trick?"

"I might have," replied the Professor. "But the odds would have been greatly against me. I would have to start one of the minor suits. East would take his ace and lead the six of spades. Since West had been smart enough to open a spade instead of his partner's suit, the chances are that they would lead dummy's 10 win that trick."

"What then?" asked the student.

"I could cash three tricks in whichever minor suit I had started and also pick up three heart tricks. That would give me a total of eight but I would have to let East in again and he would be able to lead a spade to his partner."

"Now I see," said the student. "I still have a lot to learn, don't I?"

Hallowe'en
Survey Before Tax
Session Sound Idea

Friday night being dedicated to ghosts, hobgoblins, and broomsticks, it's interesting to note what some researchers have turned up for the Associated Press on the origin and customs of Hallowe'en.

Flora Mears, a Kansas City designer of party goods for Hallmark Cards, reports that Hallowe'en is one of the world's oldest festivals, dating back 2,000 years to the pagan Druids. According to the calculations of the ancients Nov. 1 marked the beginning of the new year—therefore Oct. 31 was celebrated as the last day of the year gone by. The Druid priests made it a day of thanksgiving.

The most familiar of all decorations for our modern-day Hallowe'en is the hollowed-out pumpkin with a candle burning inside. This stems from an ancient Druid festival practice. On Hallowe'en bonfires were lighted on hilltops to welcome the good spirits, to ward off the evil ones—and to give encouragement to the waning Autumn sun. Yesterday's fire on the hill... today's candle in a pumpkin mask.

In the deep-seated quarrel between Gov. Rockefeller and the General Assembly over budgets and taxation I think the governor would do well to accept a suggestion offered by the Assembly's leaders. House Speaker Hayes McClerkin and Morrell Gathright, president pro tem of the Senate, have written the governor saying that before he calls a special session he should poll every member of the legislature on the question of voting higher sales or income taxes.

Special sessions are expensive and it would be foolish to waste money summoning the legislators for objectives the majority of them might be opposed to—a doubt that might be dispelled only by an advance survey through the governor's office.

Without such a survey it is reasonable to suppose that the legislature is just as much opposed to higher taxes today as it was in the last regular session—when the governor's tax-raising program was demolished.

Your editor is absolutely opposed to any increase in the rate or coverage of the state sales tax. If more state money is needed it's time to turn to income and property taxes.

The wealthier class of citizens ought to understand one thing clearly:

If they encourage the governor to call a special session with the idea of loading more of the budget upon the sales tax they stand a pretty good chance of being stuck with the cost themselves in higher income and property taxes.

The sales tax has been increased twice at the expense of the common man—in 1941 when the exemption of food and medicine and clothing was removed; and in 1957 when the rate was increased from 2 to 3 per cent.

If there's to be a tax hike it's wealth's turn to pay it.

Sarver Plans Long Range Prison Program

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A special legislative session will be given a comprehensive plan for state prison development over the next 10 years, Correction Commissioner Robert Sarver said Wednesday.

He said he is drafting the plan. Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has said he will call a special legislative session for late this year or early in 1970.

Sarver said his development plan will call for an end to the practice of using prison inmates as guards as soon as it is possible.

Increases in prison salaries also will be requested, he said. A guard with a high school education gets a starting salary of $308 a month under the personnel classification plan adopted this year by the legislature, he said.

"We would have difficulty getting them for $500 a month," Sarver told newsmen.

Sarver also said he hopes that over the next 10 years community treatment centers will be built in four areas.

Draft Reform Vote Abruptly Canceled

By JIM ADAMS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Efforts to open up President Nixon's draft lottery plan for a sweeping Selective Service overhaul today after nervous House leaders abruptly canceled a Wednesday night vote.

Dissidents said the delay gave Nixon and House leaders time to line up votes needed to restrict House action to the lottery plan only.

"It's a long time between (Wednesday night and this afternoon) if the President really wants to move in and work on them," said Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo.

The drive to open up the lottery bill for rewriting the entire draft act on the House floor was assumed headed for easy defeat until the vote was called off in a surprise turnabout by House leaders Wednesday night.

They reportedly believed they had the votes to defeat the move even though many congressmen had left for the night—but were unsure enough to delay the vote until nearly all members would be on hand.

Bolling charged during House debate the prohibition against broad draft reform was contrived to force Congress to turn its responsibility for writing Selective Service laws over to Nixon.

Gallantry Is More of a Strain Than Most Male Flesh Can Bear

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals today is trying to act like a perfect gentleman.

Gallantry was a great thing when knighthood was in flower, but it is more of a strain than most male flesh can bear in these seedy times.

The decay of male courtesy is caused by two factors: (1) There isn't room or time for old-fashioned courtesy in a crowded civilization, and (2) the changing nature of the chief object of gallantry—woman herself.

Suppose, for example, he decides to take off his hat and make a sweeping bow as a lady enters a packed office elevator.

All he manages to do is to scatter dandruff over 12 people and win glares of hatred from every other man in the elevator. The lady, if she notices him at all,

No Texas Ads, Business Advised

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell said Wednesday that Arkansas businessmen should not buy advertising space in a Texas publication under the impression that it is sponsored by an Arkansas law enforcement agency.

He said the publication, the State Law Enforcement Officers Recorder, has a post office box in Little Rock but is not related to any Arkansas law enforcement group.

The sole purpose of the publication so far as he knows is to make a profit for its owners, Purcell said.

Nixon Would Reorganize FTC Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon proposed today reorganization of the Federal Trade Commission and expansion of its powers as part of a program to benefit consumers.

Another proposal would establish a division of consumer protection in the Justice Department to support consumer interests in court and before government agencies.

In a special message to Congress, the President spelled out a "Buyer's Bill of Rights" which he said "will help provide greater personal freedom for individuals as well as better business for everyone."

Gallantry Is More of a Strain Than Most Male Flesh Can Bear

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals today is trying to act like a perfect gentleman.

Gallantry was a great thing when knighthood was in flower, but it is more of a strain than most male flesh can bear in these seedy times.

The decay of male courtesy is caused by two factors: (1) There isn't room or time for old-fashioned courtesy in a crowded civilization, and (2) the changing nature of the chief object of gallantry—woman herself.

Suppose, for example, he decides to take off his hat and make a sweeping bow as a lady enters a packed office elevator.

All he manages to do is to scatter dandruff over 12 people and win glares of hatred from every other man in the elevator. The lady, if she notices him at all, thinks of him as some kind of a nut.

Suppose remembering his daily good deed as a Boy Scout, he makes it a policy to help across the street every little old lady he meets.

If a guy touches the arm of a little old lady with the intention of assisting her through the traffic, she is likely to belt him in the face with a 30-pound handbag and yell:

"Help! Police! I'm being mugged!"

That points up the second problem of male gallantry—the changing attitude toward it by women.

Women theoretically still like for men to be chivalrous and knightly. But when a man does treat her with a flourish of good manners, she either is made

FCC Head Is Cited for Contempt

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Commerce Committee voted today to cite Chairman Rosel H. Hyde of the Federal Communications Commission for contempt of Congress for refusing to turn over subpoenaed records in a license renewal case.

The vote was 20 to 13.

Rep. Harley O. Staggers, D-W.Va., committee chairman, said he would discuss scheduling of the contempt citation with House leaders.

Asked whether there was any precedent for citing a regulatory agency chairman for contempt, Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., told reporters:

"There never has been a chairman who has been so flagrantly in contempt."

The action followed two days of closed-door committee sessions on the dispute which involved an attempt to obtain records of the FCC's decision to renew the license of WIRE-AM-FM, Indianapolis, Ind.

The committee's investigation subcommittee served a subpoena on Hyde to produce the record which Staggers said the FCC Chairman did not supply at a meeting last week.

"The subcommittee asked for the records to see what was in the files," Staggers said.

"We were refused access to the records. We had Mr. Hyde before the subcommittee and were not supplied the records. The subcommittee then voted to cite the chairman for contempt for not supplying the records as required under the subpoena."

Staggers said the full committee then voted today to uphold the action.

Parks Concepts May Change

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—The concept of the state parks system may be changed as a result of a management audit, a member of the state Parks, Recreation and Travel Commission said Wednesday.

Orville Richolson of Newport, the member, said in an interview that he believed the report to be made by auditors Ernest Ernst will show that the 19 state parks are needed primarily for Arkansas residents rather than as tourist attractions.

Richolson said as a result, more emphasis may be placed on the tourist business' private sector such as motels and entertainment places.

Young Michael David Tittle son of Mr. and Mrs. James Tittle of Hope, is all ready with his ghosts and goblins, pumpkin and black cat for the celebration of Halloween Friday night. That pumpkin weighs 109 pounds, a little heavy for 35-pound Michael.

3 Accidents Investigated by Police

City Police investigated three accidents within the past 24 hours, two involving school buses.

At Hardee's Grocery lot on North Hazel a bus driven by Randal Leonard backed into an auto owned by Nellie J. Jones with very minor damage. City officer Carl Ward said students in the back of the bus were supposed to be watching for the driver but failed to signal in time to prevent bumping the auto. No charge was filed.

Yesterday at the Shopping Center a Patmos bus driven by Robert L. Rogers sideswiped a car owned by Harold Lumpkin with very minor damage resulting. Officer Robert Neal investigated.

Also yesterday afternoon on East Third St. an auto driven by Mrs. Evelyn Stuart was pulled onto the street and hit a car driven by James H. Gunter. The Gunter vehicle was knocked into a parked car owned by Malcolm Porterfield. There was considerable damage.

Gunter complained of chest injuries. Mrs. Gunter and their small baby were checked at a local hospital and released. No body was believed seriously hurt. City Officer Robert Neal charged Mrs. Stuart with failure to yield the right of way.

Sweet Willie Acquitted at Memphis

MEMPHIS (AP) — Lance "Sweet Willie Wine" Watson, 32, of Memphis has been acquitted on charges of disorderly conduct and carrying a pistol.

Five Negroes and seven whites deliberated 32 minutes before returning a verdict of innocent for the militant black activist.

Watson was charged after guns were shown in a Memphis store the day before last Thanksgiving Day while a friend of his was buying food for some children.

The friend pulled the gun from his belt. Watson testified in his Memphis trial, and the store operator also produced a gun, but there was no further trouble.

Fighting Is Still Raging in Lebanon

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arab guerrillas attacked Lebanon's new military airport at Klayat early today, supported by rockets, mortars and artillery fire from nearby Syria, the Lebanese government announced.

Fighting also raged around the mountain town of Rashaya, where government forces were said to have beaten back another guerrilla attack on their outer defenses.

A communique said a strong guerrilla force tried to occupy the village of Alha, two miles from Rashaya, and the surrounding hills. Newsmen on the scene have reported the guerrillas already occupy Alha, but the Lebanese army has not admitted this.

The new fighting came amid indications from Cairo that prospects for a peace agreement were dim.

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon said today his administration will "assist in every possible way" in dealing with problems raised by the Supreme Court order for the speed-up of school desegregation.

The court, ordering immediate action to end segregation of Mississippi schools, declared unanimously Wednesday that "all deliberate speed" doctrine may be used as a cover for continued operation of segregated schools.

In a statement, Nixon did not deal directly with the problem of executive branch enforcement of the court's order but emphasized instead that there are "practical and human problems involved."

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler, when questioned closely about the role of the executive branch in enforcing speedy desegregation, repeatedly fell back upon the language of the presidential statement.

That said: "The Supreme Court has spoken decisively on the timing of school desegregation. There are, of course, practical and human problems involved. With all of us working together in full respect for the law, I am confident we can overcome these problems. I intend to use the leadership resources of the executive branch of government to assist in every possible way in doing so."

When asked directly if the Justice Department would move promptly to enforce desegregation should school districts balk at compliance with the court's order, Ziegler said he did not want to discuss hypothetical situations.

The press secretary repeatedly referred to problems and adjustments required by the order and mentioned matters of facilities and teacher assignments.

"The obligation of every school district is to terminate dual school systems at once and to operate now and hereafter only unitary schools," declared the decision, first under Chief Justice Warren E. Burger.

The ruling was a stunning setback to the Nixon administration, which had maintained education officials needed more time to "validate" desegregation plans for schools in Mississippi.

Its import extends far beyond the state, reaching wherever racially separate schools remain as a vestige of segregation laws the court began declaring unconstitutional in 1954.

Beyond that, the decision could serve as a platform for legal attacks in the North. Though most northern school segregation is a result of neighborhood housing patterns. The ruling's effect in these situations was not immediately clear.

The court acted with urgent dispatch. It had conducted its hearing only last Thursday and issued its ruling during a recess, the first such move in nearly five years.

The opinion was unsigned, though some of the phrases bore the unmistakable imprint of Justice Hugo L. Black, who in an interim ruling last month recommended a final uprooting of the "all deliberate speed" doctrine.

The decision requires the U.S. Court of Appeals in New Orleans to order Mississippi school districts to "begin immediately to operate as unitary school systems within which no person is to be effectively excluded from any school because of race or color."

The appeals court is to use as a vehicle desegregation plans that would have taken effect Sept. 1 had not the administration counseled delay until Dec. 1.

"Modifications" may be made, the Supreme Court said, so long as they "insure a totally unitary school system for all eligible pupils without regard to race or color."

The school officials are free to lodge whatever objections they may have, the high court said, but these are to be considered by federal judges in Mississippi after—and not before—the plans are put into effect.

Cuts Figure to Save U.S. $2.3 Billion

By ROBERT HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the past eight years the Pentagon has gone on periodic drives to trim fat from the defense establishment. It's diet time again.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird's announcement Wednesday detailing new base closings, consolidations and cutbacks brings to 1,457 the number of such economy actions reported by the Pentagon since 1961.

By the Pentagon's way of bookkeeping, those moves are saving the country almost $2.3 billion.

Looked at one way, that's enough to pay for the first phase of the expensive Safeguard missile defense system.

From another viewpoint, it represents about 3 per cent of this year's $78 billion defense budget.

Or it would finance only about one month of the Vietnam war based on recent spending rates.

Some Pentagon critics contend that because economies from base closings are projected in future years, the savings are to a certain extent of the paper variety.

Pentagon officials argue, however, the savings are just as real as those a family might achieve by cutting back the weekly grocery bill from $50 to $35.

A chart drawn up by the Pentagon showed reported economies in money, manpower and military installations from 1961 through this week:

United States and Puerto Rico — 1,229 actions, with calculated annual savings totaling $1.84 billion and elimination of 89,382 civilian and 134,463 military jobs.

Overseas — 228 actions, with $459.2 million in savings and 16,778 civilian and 51,038 military jobs eliminated.

Total savings — $2,299 billion, 106,160 civilian jobs, 185,501 military slots.

Pentagon spokesmen say Laird is sensitive about the latest cutbacks, calling attention to his statement in August warning that U.S. military readiness will suffer.

But the defense chief also cautioned Wednesday that further reductions are still to come under his congressionally inspired program to lop $3 billion from this year's defense spending plan.

Although there have been some howls of anguish from members of Congress whose districts are suffering payroll losses, Laird thus far has not encountered nearly so much opposition as one of his predecessors, Robert S. McNamara.

Ed Marsh Is Doing Fine in Punting

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Ed Marsh, Baylor's ace punting specialist, is making a strong run at becoming the greatest punter in Southwest Conference history by not letting his right foot know what his left foot is doing.

After whacking the ball at a near 47-yard average the last two games to take over the SWC punting lead, Marsh disclosed he wouldn't mind trying place kicking—but not with his punting leg.

"I'd love to condition my left leg for place kicking," said the right-footed kicker from Vernon. "As far as kicking field goals, I've got more strength in my left leg anyway. But the main reason is that you can mess yourself up trying to do both.

"I've talked to a lot of coaches about it and the thing you've got to remember is to educate your toes to point down in punting and to point up in place kicking. I figure anybody who can educate his right toes to point down and his left toes to point up would really be in business."

As far as punting goes, Ed Marsh is doing fine in business. He took over the SWC leadership last week when he booted 12 punts for a gaudy 45.8-yard average on ten kicks against Arkansas.

Marsh cheerfully admits something other football players and coaches have claimed for years: kicking is almost all mental and can play unusual tricks on a player's psyche. With Marsh, the big mental thing is the pointing of the toes.

"When I hurt my ankle (in Baylor's opening game) I tried on some new shoes," he said.
